

Position: Cello Instructor

Location: Chicago, IL

Organization Description: FAME Center was established as a 501(c)(3) in 2018 with a mission to provide transformative multi-disciplinary arts education to youth and adults in the Chicago-area. Founded on the belief that everyone should have access and opportunity to experience the arts, FAME Center is dedicated to removing any barriers to receiving a high quality arts education.

Description of Position: The cello instructor will teach in-person and online private and group cello lessons. The instructor will be part of a team of instructors that will inspire all participating students and be responsible for maintaining a standard of excellence for FAME Center. The ideal candidate will support our mission of delivering high quality arts education to underserved communities.

Duties:

- Teach group and individual cello lessons in person and virtually for youth and adults.
- Maintain teaching schedule and communications with students.
- Prepare students for recitals and performances in the community.
- Participate in faculty meetings as necessary.
- Evaluate student progress on an annual basis.

Qualifications: Minimum bachelor's degree in music. Previous teaching experience. The ability to work with young children. Experience and desire to work with children and adults from diverse ethnic and economic backgrounds. Ability to teach additional string instruments is a plus.

Salary: Commensurate with experience.

Availability: Qualified candidates will have at least 2 hours of availability on Wednesday afternoon/evenings, and one other day.

Contact: Email cover letter and resume to: admin@famecenter.org with the subject line “Cello Instructor Application”